PRELUDE

CENTERING AND OPENING PRAYER

Another World

Another world is not only possible,
she is on her way, she is on her way.

On a quiet day I can hear her breathing,
she is on her way, she is on her way.

WELCOME

PASSING OF THE PEACE

Good to Be Alive

It's so good to be, to be here all together
It's so good to be, so good to be alive
Thank you, God, for this goodness.
So good to be, to be alive.

We've gathered here as a family of seekers to be transformed into what is yet to be.
This is why we sing, this is why we say today:
Thank you, God, we're on our way!

WE PROCLAIM

READINGS

Romans 5:1-5 (adapted from The Voice)

Since we have been acquitted and made right through faith, we are able to experience true and lasting peace with God through Jesus, the Anointed One, the Liberating King. Jesus leads us into a place of radical grace where we are able to celebrate the hope of experiencing God's glory. And that's not all. We also celebrate in seasons of suffering because we know that when we suffer, we develop endurance, which shapes our characters. When our characters are refined, we learn what it means to hope and anticipate God's goodness. And hope will never fail to satisfy our deepest need because the Holy Spirit that was given to us has flooded our hearts with God's love.

Edith Eger, The Gift: 12 Lessons to Save Your Life (excerpt)

“Freedom is a lifetime practice – a choice we get to make again and again each day. Ultimately, freedom requires hope, which I define in two ways: the awareness that suffering, however terrible, is temporary; and the curiosity to discover what happens next. Hope allows us to live in the present instead of the past, and to unlock the doors of our mental prisons.”

“Hope isn't the white paint we use to mask our suffering. It's an investment in curiosity.
A recognition that if we give up now, we'll never get to see what happens next.”

These are Words of Hope.
Thanks be to God!

MESSAGE

Hope Keeps Us Alive and Curious

Lead Pastor, Church of the Village, NYC

WE RESPOND

WE GATHER AROUND THE TABLE OF GRACE

Light Dawns on a Weary World

Light dawns on a weary world
When eyes begin to see all people's dignity.
Light dawns on a weary world:
The promised day to justice comes.

The trees shall clap their hands;
The dry lands, gush with spring;
The hills and mountains shall break forth with singing!
We shall go out with joy,
And be led forth in peace,
As all the world in wonder echoes shalom.

Love grows in a weary world
When hungry hearts find bread
And children's dreams are fed.
Love grows in a weary world;
The promised feast of plenty comes.

Hope blooms in a weary world
When creatures, once forlorn, find wilderness reborn.
Hope blooms in a weary world:
The promised green of Eden comes.

INVITATION

God be with you.
And also with you.

Let us lift up our hearts.
We lift them to you, Eternal Loving One.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Friends, these are gifts of God for you and for all people.
Thanks be to God.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Come, Bring Your Burdens to God

Come, bring your burdens to God,
come, bring thanksgiving to God,
come, bring your burdens to God,
bring all that's within you to God.

TIME OF OFFERING

OFFERTORY

Jesucristo, esperanza del mundo/Jesus Christ Hope of the World

A little beyond this our time the future announces with gladness no walls, no disaster, no crime,
no more desolation, no sadness.

*¡Venha teu Reino Senhor!
transform our lament into dancing,
and all our hope and our longings transform in the fullness of life.
Aie, eia, ae, ae, ae //*

We hope for a new world of trust:
No one will be feeble nor strong.
The systems we have are unjust:
they always divisions prolong.

The seeds of your kindom we bear, your future is drawing so near the earth, with your help, we prepare until you, in fullness, appear.

 Your Kin-dom come!

WE ARE SENT INTO THE WORLD

BLESSING

CLOSING HYMN

Color Esperanza

I can see it clearly deep in your eyes
I see you're tired of struggling with life with each reprise, the vicious cycle never dies.
But, I also know there's always a chance;
that life can offer new ways to dance.
God is at hand, the Spirit calls beyond your plans.

Let's trust it can happen, allow it to happen,
release fear, replace it with hope everlasting.
Let's paint all our faces color esperanza enticing the future with wide, open hearts.

WE ARE THE CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE

The Church of the Village is a progressive and radically inclusive community that is committed to dismantling racism, sexism, and all forms of oppression. The foundation for all of our theology and practice is Jesus' instruction to "love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength and love your neighbor as yourself."

We seek to build a world overflowing with justice, mercy, kindness, and compassion.

Our church building stands on ancestral lands of the Lenape people. The colonizers who stripped indigenous peoples of their lands used Christianity to justify their actions. We are beneficiaries of a history of appropriation, slavery, and forced migration. We repent and commit to being a community that seeks to repair the harm done to indigenous peoples and build new pathways to love and justice.

We celebrate human diversity – welcoming people of every color, nationality, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, physical and cognitive ability, and economic status. We strongly support environmental justice and stewardship of the Earth. We believe many roads lead to God and are respectful of a diversity of spiritual paths. We believe our community flourishes with many points of view, opportunities for creative expression, and participatory worship.

To learn more about The Church of the Village, please complete our Virtual Welcome Card.

You can also submit a prayer request on the Welcome Card form.

We will gladly send you our weekly email newsletter and Daily Inspiration emails.

Families give support, and families need support. Here at The Church of the Village, we choose to be family for one another, and we each strive to do our part. Every member of The Church of the Village family has gifts to bring.

The practice of regular giving in any amount recognizes God's abundance and strengthens our family. It builds our relationships with one another and expresses our trust in God's love. It does not matter how large or small the contribution, each donation adds to the flourishing of the family! What's important is that we do this together, with each family member doing their part as they are able. As we hear in 2 Corinthians 8:12:

For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have.

We all work together as members and supporters of our spiritual community to foster the ministries and mission of the Church of the Village. Here are ways you can offer your gifts:

- BANK TRANSFER: You can make individual gifts or your regular pledged offering by setting up an electronic bank transfer from your account to the church's account; there are no fees for this service to you or to the church.
- VENMO: You can also give online using Venmo – a digital wallet that lets you make and make payments or gifts via your mobile device with no fee. On Venmo, you can find us by typing: @COTVNYC. Venmo can be downloaded, for free, for iOS and/or Androids using your respective app store.
- VANCO: Vanco's simple online payment processing services and giving app make it easy to give when and where you want.
- CHECK: you can send a check payable to "The Church of the Village," and mail it to:
Church of the Village
PO Box 167
New York, NY 10113

For assistance with using any of these methods or to talk about remembering Church of the Village in your will, email giving@churchofthevillage.org. Please note - emails to this address should be about how we can help you set up your giving process but should NOT include any specific information about pledge amounts, gift amounts, or any other confidential information from the individual sending the message.

Thank you for being a part of the family of The Church of the Village and supporting the work and ministry of this community!

CONGREGATIONAL GIVING

From January through June 2021, Congregational Giving at COTV totaled: $66,482.00. At the midpoint of 2021, our giving has reached 50 percent of our congregational giving needs for the year. Thanks be to God and to our faithful COTV family.

VIBRANT LIVING

~ Flourishing in the Messiness of Life ~

"Life is about using the whole box of crayons." - RuPaul

What does it take to open ourselves to a vibrant life? Why do we sometimes struggle to cry out in pain, to roar with laughter, or to stay in awe? How can we resist the numbness and fear that prevents us from flourishing?

This worship series listens for the way of the Spirit, who leads us to vitality in the midst of the complications and struggles of our lives. The Spirit releases us from a limited palette into all the sparkling colors of human experience. The Spirit brings us closer to each other, closer to the Earth, and closer to ourselves. Join us as we learn to come fully alive in resonance with the Spirit. Come and experience a vibrant life through extravagant welcome, Spirit-filled worship and loving community.

Join us Online: Sundays, May 30 - July 25 at 10:30am ET / 9:30am CT / 7:30am PT

WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY: THE WAY TO HEAVEN

Wednesdays; 6:30pm

The Way to Heaven is a twentieth-anniversary revision of John Wesley's Message for Today. Dr. Steve Harper presents Wesley's writings and the ideas of Wesley scholars in language that is clear and accessible but never simplistic. Written in the spirit of Wesley, here are "plain words for plain people." The heart of this book is a thoughtful and inspiring look at Wesley's theology of grace and its power to transform.

The group meets Wednesdays at 6:30 PM. Everyone is invited to join. Facilitated by Sarah Capers, Deaconess. Join us via Zoom! <http://zoom.us/j/713063594> or by phone: 646-876-9923; Meeting ID: 713 063 594 Passcode: 10011

ANTI-RACISM RESOURCES AND RECOMMENDATIONS

You can find many resources and suggestions for anti-racism study, conversation, donations, and activism on our website. In addition, our emails Monday through Friday, nearly every day, include links to articles, protests, events, and other ways to learn and participate. For more information and/or to sign up for the Daily Inspiration emails, go to our website: churchofthevillage.org.

THE RED DOOR PLACE (HOPE FOR OUR NEIGHBORS IN NEED)

Donations, in person, to the program can be made Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, from 9am to 3pm. Ring the bell on the red door on 13th street or call the number posted at the door.

Food Pantry: Tuesdays from 3:30 – 5:30pm. No early line up permitted before 3pm.
Lineup will begin behind the rope at 3pm on the corner of 7th Avenue and 13th Street.

We will continue to hand out bags of food on Saturdays beginning around 11:30am. Guests may arrive earlier to get a place in line; we have chalk marks on the sidewalk at 6-foot intervals to indicate where people should stand at a safe distance.

THE RED DOOR PLACE – NEEDS MONEY FOR FOOD!

The huge increase in unemployment and homelessness means that The Red Door Place has gone from providing food for 1,700 persons before the pandemic, to 2,500 in April, to now more than 4,000 persons every week. TRDP has plenty of volunteers. What we need is money. We are desperately trying to keep enough food coming in to give out to every guest. TRDP is one of only a few emergency food programs in Manhattan still giving out a significant amount of food to each guest at the pantry on Tuesdays and still offering a hot meal on Saturdays.

IF YOU WANT TO HELP, ask your employer, your family, your friends to GIVE! Put out an appeal on your Facebook page. Email people you think would be able to donate.

TO MAKE A DONATION, you can donate online using VENMO app – by typing @COTVNYC. Or, VANCO's simple online payment processing services and giving app makes it easy to give when and where you want. Or, send checks made payable to Church of the Village and write The Red Door Place (TRDP) in the memo line. Mail to: Church of the Village, PO Box 167, New York, NY 10113.

GIVE TO THE CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE ON VENMO

The Church of the Village is now on Venmo – a digital wallet that lets you make and share payments with friends via your mobile device at no additional charge. Both the sender and receiver have to live in the U.S. Venmo can be downloaded, for free, for iOS and/or Androids using your respective play store. Look us up @COTVNYC.

GIVE TO THE CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE ON VANCO

The Church of the Village is now accessible via Vanco. VANCO's simple online payment processing services and giving app make it easy to give when and where you want. Visit <https://secure.myvanco.com/L-YQX3>.

BECOME A CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE PRAYER PARTNER

Each week, we receive many prayers through our website, the Hope for Our Neighbors in Need food ministry, on prayer cards during worship, and from our Ministers of Care team. These prayers are distributed via email to our large team of Prayer Partners who lift them up to God.

If you would like to join the Prayer Partners team, please email Deaconess Sarah Capers (smcapers99@gmail.com) with your interest. You can submit a prayer online at ChurchoftheVillage.org/prayer.

COTV WORSHIP VIDEOS ON FACEBOOK

It is always a deeper experience to be present with the worshipping community, but when you can't join us for Sunday worship, you can view the worship recording anytime at Facebook.com/ChurchoftheVillage/videos.

SERMON ARCHIVE

If you missed worship or want to read the sermon again, we post many of our past Sunday sermon manuscripts and worship bulletins on our website at ChurchoftheVillage.org/sermons. We encourage you to read and share them with others.

OUR ADVENTURE IN ONLINE-ONSITE COMMUNITY

On Easter Sunday, April 4, 2021 – for the first time since the pandemic shutdown in March 2020 – a group of leaders and artists led portions of worship from the church building in Manhattan (New York City). On April 25, a larger group gathered onsite to celebrate the Baptism of Robert Jairo Morant. On May 23, 2021, a small cohort of members of Church of the Village came to the building to participate in worship. These developments are very exciting and meaningful for those who had been away from this beloved space for more than a year. They were also meaningful for those online who have never and may not ever step foot in the building. Our hope is that by early September, we will be able to open the Sanctuary to all members and supporters who wish to attend and to the public.

As a faith community, the Church of the Village is no longer tied to a building. This is only the beginning and is part of a much bigger vision for our community.

We are not “re-opening” because the Church of the Village never closed – we only shifted our ministry to be completely online for a year. As the world slowly emerges from the Covid-19 pandemic, there’s been no thought among the Church of the Village leadership of “going back” to the way of “doing church” before the pandemic. Our reality and reach has changed dramatically in a year. We continue to attract worshippers and receive new members from across the U.S. and beyond its borders, as well as from the New York City area. We are on a journey and living into becoming a fully online and onsite community.

People are attracted to the Church of the Village because of our progressive theology, radical inclusivity, extravagant welcome, and focus on social, economic, and climate justice. Many who worship with us or decide to join cannot find this sort of faith community where they live. We believe it is God’s desire that each of us have the chance to have as full a life as possible by seeking the common good in healthy community together. So we are committed to building an online and onsite community to reach as widely as possible. With this vision for online and onsite community, we can re-imagine John Wesley’s vision and say that the whole world, literally, can be our parish.

We encourage you to participate in as many online and onsite opportunities in the Church of the Village community as possible. Consider how you can contribute to the thriving of our lives together. If you want more information on how to connect with Church of the Village, contact Pastor Jeff Wells or Pastor Alexis Lillie.
